

Alaska Run For Women

Mission

To raise money for and awareness of breast cancer and women's health, and to showcase the talents of Alaska's women athletes.

Race Director Application Instructions

Background

The Alaska Run for Women is a not-for-profit organization that stages a unique and special annual event that includes a five-mile and a one-mile run/walk. The Run brings people together to help reach a number of common goals relevant to fighting breast cancer, and raises money for this important cause. The Run is also a means of highlighting the talents of Alaska's women athletes in their own competitive event, as well as inspiring and motivating women of all ages to do something healthy for themselves and in support of others.

Founded in 1993, the event has raised more than $4.5 million for breast cancer awareness, prevention and research. In recent years the event has drawn as many as 7,000 annual participants. The Alaska Run for Women will celebrate 27 years in 2019.
