

Alaska Run for Women 2021 Grant Guidelines (October 1, 2021 - September 30, 2022)

The primary focus of our organization's fund raising efforts is to raise awareness and decrease the impact of breast cancer on our Alaskan communities through education, outreach, research, early detection and treatment. All grant proposals must directly support this focus.

Grant Funding Focus Areas:

- Address vulnerable populations
- Demonstrate strong collaboration with other agencies working in this arena
- Support women living in underserved areas
- Serve geographically diverse areas
- Encourage evidenced-based Healthy Lifestyle programs demonstrated to reduce risk
- Develop community-based programs, using evidenced based strategies, to support early detection and measure impact
- Promote quality of life for survivors of breast cancer and/or addresses issues related to long term effects of treatment, recurrence or complications following a diagnosis and treatment of breast cancer
- Involve clinical trials/research to advance scientific knowledge in breast cancer

The following are not acceptable for funding:

- Indirect costs
- Support of profit-making activities
- Capital cost (except limited equipment directly related to an approved project)
- Agencies who grant funds to others – recycle, pass through funds
- Religious, political or partisan endeavors
- Travel for clients or conferences
- Gift cards
- Any project not directly and primarily related to breast cancer

Grant applications must be received electronically at grants@akrfw.org by midnight (AST) August 15, 2021.

Late submissions will not be considered.

Funding decisions will be finalized in October 2021.
